

Sector	Priority Areas – Year 2017
School Education	Applied learning
	Literacy & Numeracy
	Science & Technology
	Foreign language teaching and/or learning
	Life skills for children
	Mobility projects involving foreign teachers teaching in local schools
	Participation of children with special needs or special learning
	Digital skills
	Vocational education
	Life skills for teens
	Alternative learning programme initiatives
Vocation Education & Training	Apprenticeships / work-based learning
	Entrepreneurship development skills
Higher Education	Internships fostering work based learning
	Projects involving enterprises or other socio-economic players active in the world of work as participating organisations
Adult Education	Basic skills in literacy
	Life skills for adults
	Catching-up initiatives
	Inclusion of unemployed and other vulnerable adults
Youth Sector
Youth Work and services for young people:	New spaces at local community level for young people and youth organisations.
	Awareness raising, listening to and supporting the voice of young people.
	Initiatives for the active engagement, empowerment and participation of young people and youth organisations.
Cross-sectoral supports for young people:
	Education and training – Initiatives that utilise both formal and non-formal learning as mutually reinforcing agents
	Health and Well-Being
	Employment and entrepreneurship
	Arts and Culture
	Social Inclusion
	Voluntary and Community activities
	Sport and Recreational activities