The Malta-EU Steering and Action Committee (MEUSAC) and the European Union Programmes Agency (EUPA) will be organising two information sessions for local councils and NGOs in Gozo on the new funding programme Erasmus+.

This programme will provide several funding opportunities for local entities and non-profit organisations in the field of education, training, youth and sport.

Organisations have the possibility to tap into Erasmus+ for the implementation of the following projects:

- 1) Mobility projects for youths and adults (training for adults, school education staff, youth workers and youth exchanges)
- 2) The hosting and/or sending of volunteers
- 3) Meetings between young people and decision makers in the field of youth
- 4) Strategic Partnerships, Knowledge Alliances in the field of training and education
- 5) Not-for-Profit European Sport Events and Collaborative Partnerships in the field of sport

These information sessions will be held next Thursday, the 6th of February, starting at 2.00pm for local councils and at 4.00pm for NGOs.

Both sessions will be organised at the Ministry for Gozo, St Francis Square, Victoria.

Registrations will be received on funding.meusac@gov.mt ^[1].
