Joint ECVET and Europass Conference Bridging the two European Accreditation Systems

The Maltese National Europass Centre and the ECVET National Team both managed by the European Union Programmes Agency, with the support of the National Commission for Further and Higher Education (NCFHE) is organising a Conference directed at key stakeholders such as education providers, industry in particular human resource professionals, employer representatives, policy makers, educators, youth workers and the general public.

The conference will focus on the two European accreditation tools whereby a link between the two will be explored, with a focus on:

- Special Eurobarometer 417 'European Areas of Skills and Qualifications'
- The development of learning outcomes for mobility
- Benefits of ECVET and the added value of using Europass and its supporting documents

Foreign Speakers:

- Ms Teuta Danazu, National Qualifications Authority in Kosovo
The development of learning outcomes for mobility at a national level through ECVET while complementing EQAVET and EQF
- Mr Phillip Whitney, UK ECVET Expert - PW Consultancy Services
Raising awareness of using ECVET for mobility programmes and the added value of using Europass and other European tools - a UK perspective
- Ms Ana I. Azevedo Project Manager, ISQ in Portugal (a R&I company providing inspection, testing, training and technical consultancy)
Case Study - the importance of ECVET for business

National Speaker:

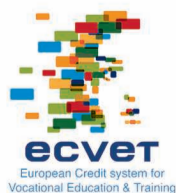

- Ms Christine Scholz, Research and Policy Manager, NCFHE
Research Study on the awareness and use of the Europass CV by students in Malta

The Conference shall be held on Thursday 27th November 2014 between 08.30 and 13.00 at The Waterfront Hotel, The Strand Sliema.

An ECVET Café session will be held after the Conference

Interested parties are kindly requested to register by sending an email to europass.eupa@gov.mt by Tuesday 25th November, 2014

This activity is being funded with support from the European Commission. More information about ECVET and Europass can be found <http://eupa.org.mt>
