Emanwel's Testimonial:

"[This Erasmus+ experience] was a very positive experience both for myself and also for the rest of the group. First of all it was the first time I went to Corum. I have already been to Turkey but not to this place. Making new friends is another nice experience. Sharing and comparing our ideas and methods of teaching. The weather was very friendly and so were all the people who I came in contact with.

Before going to Turkey, I was a bit afraid because of the situation there. I was involved in another project in which the partners decided not to go to Turkey. I decided to go because the Turkish coordinator assured me that there was nothing to be afraid of and everything was normal. Looking back at the mobility the coordinator was right and we had a very fruitful experience.

The best moments of this experience were when all the partners worked together so as to fulfill the very hectic agenda. A very nice experience was the places that we have visited, like Cappadocia and Amasya. These visits enriched my knowledge of this vast Turkish country. The only thing that I didn't like was the amount of time it takes to travel from one place to another. Turkey being a huge country travelling consumes a lot of time. To drive to the places mentioned above, it took us 5 hours each way. At the end it was really worth it.

I will surely encourage other people to take part in Erasmus +projects , if the opportunity arises, to grab this opportunity and go. These kind of opportunities only come once and if you lose them they will be lost for every. Whenever I went on a mobility, I always learned from it. Especially for us living on an island, going abroad will definitely broaden your mind."
